Hi I'm Chelsey Schwalbe

I stopped with my newborn baby girl today. I just wanted to let y'all know that what you're doing is absolutely amazing we need more people like you in the world. I am so thankful to have so many great and wonderful people standing behind me and parenting. I have come to find in just 21 short years of living on this earth that this world is a very evil place, I think if more people were like you all the world would be halfway decent. God bless you all for taking the time out of your days and lives to stand up for what is right I pray I can grow to be like y'all and teach my children what has been right and wrong all along. If at all possible I would like to attend some meetings or get some emails or even so much is buy a T-shirt to help advertise if possible could you also send me the picture you got of my daughter and I with the signs I would like to advertise it on my social media. God bless you all and I wish you all the best of luck.
