

The Planned Parenthood agenda for children

By: John Pisciotta

- Presents sex in a frivolous, flippant manner.
- Diminishes any sense of modesty.
- Gives children more to think and act upon. Leads them on by presenting new and novel options.
- Gives impression that “everybody’s doing it.”
- Separates children from religious & parental values/authority.
- PP tells children, “You can be the lucky one.” Tries to convince each youngster that he or she can avoid the unwelcome impacts of a promiscuity by partaking of PP’s advice and services.
- Adults should “tune in” and be guided by kids are thinking & doing.
- Sex is about being healthy & happy today. Virtue and morality are set aside.
- If PP does get into morality, aggressive moral relativism and personal autonomy are what they uphold as ultimate “values.”
- Promotes Planned Parenthood as THE trusted source on sex!!
